ADVANCE TO

day of holding the election for Attorney General Die On account of the crowded state of our ad-there was also an election for Mayor and Aldermen, vertising columns, we are not able to give our usual held at Dover—that printed tickets for myself and amount of local items this week. We would be who desired to make choice for Attorney General glad if our friends would aid us in getting up a that the election for Attorney General had been sufficient number of subscribers to publish a Tribolden during the morning until about noon, when the Mayor and Aldermen ticket was introduced, Weekly. What do you say? with my competitor's name listed among the Al-dermen, marked, "For Attorney General"—and

In a statement, in our last issue, in regard that the voters about the town were again called up to the suspension of the horse mail between this to vote for Mayor and Aldermen—and one gentle-place and Nashville, via Sycamore Mills, we have man stated that he was about to vote this Mayor and Aldermen tieket after he had voted for W. E. Lowe once, and by accident discovered his name upon the Aldermen written ticket, and erased it with we stated, last week, that the contractor offered to pay a debt of twenty-five dollars in government asmarances or script, and that the gentleman to whom both tickets) had received 160 votes, while I had It was offered, refused it. Since then we have learn-received only 4. These facts, based upon informs ed that Mr. Hockersmith, the contractor, did not tion, determined me at once to contest the election make that proposition; but the gentleman to whom be owed twenty-five dollars, was asked (by some one else,) which be would rather have the debt on, Mr. Hockersmith or the government? and he replied that he would rather have it on Hockersmith. We furthermore learn that Hockersmith said that the reason that he threw up the contract, was, that the investigation of these matters made. After the Department had not paid him. But as to the real election was contested, I examined into the alledged fraud at Dover, and find that although the tickets for Attorney General and Mayor and Aldermen were east into the same ballot-box, and my competare glad to learn that our Post Master, here, has se- iter was run on both tickets for Attorney General, | Sponge, Hip, and Plunge Bathing Tubs. &c., &c. cured a temporary contractor, and the mail is again do not now believe there was any fraud intended to be practiced, nor that this proceeding resulted in any in operation.
